TO INDIANA LICENSED MONEY TRANSMITTERS:

Enclosed is an application for renewal of a license under the Indiana Money Transmitter Act (IC 28-8-4). The application must be completed and submitted to the Department of Financial Institutions with a license renewal fee of $200 plus $5 per business location or authorized delegate, up to a total maximum fee of $1.000.00. License renewals are due on or before December 31.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT:

An audited Financial Statement is to be attached to the application revealing a net worth of the lesser of $100,000 plus $50,000 for each location and for each authorized delegate in Indiana; or a net worth of $500,000. The Financial Statement is to include a balance sheet, a statement of income or loss, a statement of changes in shareholder's equity, management letter, and a statement of changes in financial position; or if the licensee is a wholly owned subsidiary, the consolidated audited annual financial statement of the parent corporation filed with the licensee's unaudited annual financial statement. This statement must have been prepared no earlier than 12 months prior to the renewal date.

SECURITY DEVICE:

The security device required by Section 27 of the Act or a deposit as required by Section 29 of the Act must remain in force during the time a licensee engages in money transmission operations in Indiana and for five years after the date a licensee ceases money transmission operation in Indiana under IC 28-8-4-30.

The information listed on the license renewal application required under Section 38 of the Act must accompany the application. (Copy of Section 38 is on the reverse side of this letter.)

A license issued under the Money Transmitter Act is not assignable or transferable.

If the license is not to be renewed, the original license must be returned before December 31 with a letter stating that it is to be surrendered.

If you desire further information concerning specific licensing questions, please contact this office.

PLEASE NOTE:

The Department may impose a fee of five dollars ($5) per day on any license renewal fee that is not received by December 31.

28-8-4-38 Renewal of licenses

- Sec. 38. (a) A licensee may renew a license by complying with the following:
- (1) Filing with the director the annual report in the form that is prescribed by the director and sent by the director to each licensee not less than three (3) months immediately preceding the date established by the director for license renewal. The report must:

(A) include:

- (i) a copy of the licensee's most recent audited consolidated annual financial statement, including a balance sheet, a statement of income or loss, a statement of changes in shareholder's equity, and a statement of changes in financial position; or
- (ii) if the licensee is a wholly owned subsidiary, the consolidated audited annual financial statement of the parent corporation filed with the licensee's unaudited annual financial statement;
- (B) the number of payment instruments sold by the licensee in Indiana, the dollar amount of those instruments, and the dollar amount of outstanding payment instruments sold by the licensee calculated from the most recent quarter for which data is available before the date of the filing of the renewal application, but in no event more than one hundred twenty (120) days before the renewal date;
- (C) material changes to the information submitted by the licensee on its original application that have not been reported previously to the director on any other report required to be filed under this chapter;
- (D) a list of the licensee's permissible investments; and
- (E) a list of the locations within Indiana at which business regulated by the chapter will be conducted by either the licensee or its authorized delegate.
- (2) Paying the annual renewal fee described under section 37 of this chapter.
- (b) A licensee that:
- (1) does not file a renewal report or pay the renewal fee by the renewal filing deadline set by the director; and
- (2) had not been granted an extension of time to do so by the director; shall be notified by the director, in writing, that a hearing will be scheduled at which the licensee will be required to show cause why its license should not be suspended pending compliance with these requirements. If after the hearing the license is not suspended, the director may require a daily late fee beginning with the date the renewal report or annual renewal fee is required by this chapter in an amount fixed by the department under IC 28-11-3-5. As added by P.L.42-1993, SEC.85.
